

In Your Footsteps

V: SATB

#: BP1905

C: Dan Forrest

T: Duane Nichols

A: Piano

U: Adult • Easter

P: Beckenhorst Press Inc • 960 Old W Henderson Rd • PO Box 14273 • Columbus OH 43214 • (614) 451-6461 • fax (614) 451-6627

©: 2010, Beckenhorst Press

All rights reserved. Reprinted page used by permission.

This is a great anthem, but it might take some patience in the reading to discover it. Make no mistake, it will sing well, and nothing here is difficult or off putting. But as an Easter piece it is not at all “rah rah.” Instead it is quiet, so much so that the “Alleluia” passages seem out of place at the beginning. But if you stay with it, you will be rewarded with a moving, dramatic anthem that will touch listeners. Find the right place for this; you’ll be glad you did. L-M; end-ff; M.

feet, and touch Your wound - ed side. Show me where the 38 39 40 41

mf

p poco rit.

pierc - ing thorns were thrust up - on Your head.

p poco rit.

42 43 44 45

a tempo

p

Cru - el were the fa - tal blows You suf - fered in my stead. Al - le -

unis: p a tempo

a tempo

46 47 48 49